Tommy Burns Writes a Letter,
Declaring He Believes Arthur
Pelky Best of All the Heavyweights.

Copyright, 1918, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

TOMMY BURNS, who was once world's heavyweight champion until he lost the title to John... believes that Arthur Pelky is the best of all the heavyweights. Burns lets his enthusiasm bubble over in the following letter, written, by the way, before the matches at McCarty's arena were indefinitely postponed (this week):

Shasta Limited de Luxe.

A few times while speeding on this train for Calgary, to attend to some business and see my wife and two children. I left Los Angeles last night, leaving Pelky at Venice, where he is training for his contest with Charlie Miller.

This boy Pelky is a fine fellow—a grand boy and likes the simple life—and he can box some! He is fast—a good left hand—and I have taught him how to use that short right. And he is as game as they make them.

I went six rounds with him at Calgary before his match with McCarty, and believe me this boy had me in all at the finish, and that's how I got hold of him. Pelky is French and Irish. His right name is Arthur Pelier, and his mother's name before she was married was Cassidy. Do you see he has a good mixture. To show you what a big, good-hearted fellow he is, I was having him undergo an operation on his nose. Of course, the doctors had to put him to sleep for a few minutes. Arthur called me to one side and said: "Put it off until I arrive, as I want to go to confession first."

Pelky is 6 feet 1 1/2 inches tall and weighs 265 pounds in condition, and is every inch a man and a gentleman. If all boxers were like him the people would worship boxing in every country in the world. I hope that Paris contest with Johnson goes through. I expect another calamity at Calgary. Pelky is a man who is as sure as you're alive, if they ever meet. No one knows both Johnson and Pelky better than I do, as I fought them both. Of course, Pelky is the white champion, but I want him to redeem what I lost for the white race. Believe me, that's the ambition of my life. I think Gumbo Smith would be a joke beside him. Pelky will get his now. He tells me he fought in a New York club and was to get 25 per cent. of the gate receipts, and when they came to count up the money, all complimentary tickets in the box. Pelky said it looked like a $25,000 house, and he was handed $27 for his 25 per cent. of the gate. That was handing him some! Pelky will get what's coming to him now. Money is not everything in the world, but I sure want to see him make something, as he is deserving of it.

Your friend,
TOMMY BURNS.

THE above reminds us that somewhere in all the clamor of matches and edicts of champion-ship claims by our "white hope" there has been a silent void. Pelky's name is never mentioned. Ask any of the managers of other heavyweights why they don't look for a match with Pelky, and they bridle and stare disdainfully, yet with entirely unnecessary emphasis, that in their opinion Pelky is a dud whom the public doesn't care to see in the ring. "Why," they say, "so-and-so liked him a couple of years ago." And then they suggest some softer method.

The plain fact is that none of them is stumbling over his own feet with haste to meet Pelky. Perhaps the knowledge that Tommy Burns has been coaching Pelky for several months may have something to do with it.

HOW'S this for press agent "dope"? "If Jim McKee is the truthful, full real old Irish gentleman he accuses himself of being, let him announce in the newspapers over his own moniker, that looks so good as a check, that he will be: Gumbo Smith fight the winner of the Palmer-Morans contest. If Demontheus Buckley will thus place himself on record!"—I. & Co., N.Y.

DAN SAWAGE writes that he is handling brother Jim's business now.

"As the public knows," says Dan, "Jim's great fights were won only when he trained, and his defeats of Frank Moran and Tom Kennedy, each in seven rounds, show what he can do when he puts his head down to business. I think it is no more than fair that Jim should get a return match with Smith, as it is understood he was in no condition on the night they fought. I think the way Jim is going now he'll beat Smith. Since losing to Smith he has not lost one battle, and defeated Eubank twice, Tim Logan, Dan Daly, Tom McMahon, Jack Keating and Whitley Allen. He is open to meet Smith, Palmer or any heavyweight."

It's the fighter who fights once or twice without getting into condition who loses the confidence of the public. If he made matches far apart after that it's his own fault. However, it would be interesting to see if Savage could fight without Morgan in his corner.

JOE KNIGHT WINS
OVER SLOW TRACK
AT SARATOGA

Butwell Was Forced to Ride
Out His Mount to Defeat
Moncrief.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 27.—An attendance fully up to the average turned out to-day to witness the sport. The slowness of the track, due to the heavy downpour last night, accounted for the time in the different events, and another thing that militated against some of the performers was the cupping of the track.

The feature event, the Adirondack Handicap, at six furlongs for two-year-olds, attracted a nice field of juveniles, and there was so much balance to them that the liberal price of 5 to 1 was quoted against the winner, Little Nephew.

Little Nephew immediately took command, closely attended by Mr. Snigge and Petergold, with the field right at their heels, the only one not getting off being Gainer, which was practically left. There were no changes in positions until home stretch was reached, where those in the rear closed the intervening space.

At the eighth pole the field was stretched across the track like a troop of cavalry, each striving for the lead. All during the last hundred yards it was a bitter struggle, and other than Little Nephew, which was ridden out to win by a length, the next three were heads apart, Black Broom getting the place with Spearhead third.

Gainer closed in whirlwind fashion, and from the mane ring the race was run. It was the consensus of opinion that the latter youngster was the best of his field.

Three-year-olds and upward; selling: six furlongs. Time, 1:14. Joe Knight, 115 (Butwell), 5 to 1, 1 to 3 and out, first; Moncrief, 107 (Ward), 15 to 1, 1 to 1 and out, second; Honey Bee, 108 (J. McTaggart), 6 to 1, 1 to 3 and out, third. Trifler, 107, also ran.

SECOND RACE.—Three-year-olds and upward; about two miles—Malibie, 265 (Kienok), 4 to 1, 5 to 1 and 1 to 1; Juvenice, 127 (Kermath), 2 to 1, 3 to 5 and 1 to 1; second; Bill Andrews, 268 (O'Fallon), 15 to 1, 5 to 1 and 1 to 1, third. Gun Cotton, 140, and Octopus, 134, fell.

The steeplechase was one of the best seen in a long time. There were but five starters, and for the first turn and a half of the field it was any one's race. On the second lap, at the Liverpool, Gun Cotton went down and Octopus, which was immediately behind, landed on top of him. While this was happening the pacemaker, Bill Andrews, was moving along at a clip that forced Juvenice and Malibie to do their best to keep up. These three made their final effort at the same time and they cleared the last jump together. But when it came to the run on the flat, Malibie had the foot and drew away to win by five lengths from Juvenice, with Bill Andrews third.

THIRD RACE.—Three-year-olds and upward; selling: one mile—Gramme, 109 (J. McTaggart), 7 to 2 and out, first; Beaucoup, 111 (Butwell), 4 to 1, 1 to 5 and 1 to 1; second; Inspector Lestrade, 114 (Davies), 15 to 1, 2 to 1 and 1 to 1, third. Time, 1:41.4. Servience, 108, Sir Denrah, 105, also ran.

found Gramme a topheavy choice, with Beaucoup favored by the moon shooters. Gramme rushed to the front, with Beaucoup second and Inspector Lestrade third. Young McTaggart, holding Gramme under slight restraint, never had any trouble to hold the lead. In fact, it was nothing but a gallop for Gramme from start to finish, he winning easily. Beaucoup beat Inspector Lestrade a length and a half for the place. The others were beaten off.

FOURTH RACE.—The Adirondack Handicap; two-year-olds; six furlongs—Little Nephew, 115 (Killingsworth), 5 to 1, even and 1 to 1, first; Black Broom, 116 (Ambrose), 15 to 1, 5 to 1 and 1 to 1, second; Spearhead, 108 (Davies), 20 to 1, 5 to 1 and 1 to 1, third. Time, 1:13. Mr. Snigge, 108; Punch Bowl, 112; Roamer, 111; Vandergrift, 110; Gainer, 111; Flittergold, 114, also ran.

FIFTH RACE.—All ages; one mile—Flying Fairy, 107 (Davies), 5 to 1, 2 to 1 and even, first; Sam Jackson, 120 (Lofthus), 2 to 1, even and 1 to 1, second; Keybourn, 112 (A. Wilson), 6 to 1, 2 to 1 and even, third. Time—1:40.3. Bally Cliff, 15; Ocean Blue, 100; Coy Lad, 16; Shackleton, 100, and Lady Lightning, 80, also ran.

Well Known English Author Suggests That Great Britain Withdraw from Berlin Games.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Great Britain is becoming so agitated over athletics that it promises to cause the entire country as much trouble as the question of woman's suffrage. All the greatest authors are taking part in the controversy that has been engendered since the recent appeal for a $500,000 fund, which is wanted for the purpose of developing a team that can make a respectable showing at the Olympic games in Berlin in 1916. Frederic Harrison, one of the country's best authors, suggests that John Bull withdraw from the games at Berlin, saying:

"The whole affair stinks of gate money and professional pot-hunting."

The Duke of Westminster, in reply to Harrison, strongly advocates Great Britain withdrawing from her lethargy and commencing building up a worthy athletic team. He mentions the fact that England has been beaten by the United States in eighteen different events and he closes his statement by saying:

"This is a tale of national disaster. In England to do nothing to recover her ancient supremacy as the mother of sports."

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle also replies to Mr. Harrison, asking whether he can devise a method to prevent such a misfortune as Great Britain sustained at Stockholm, save by systematic, painstaking preparation, which in the end must mean money.

The Times, commenting editorially, says:

"Not to go to Berlin would be an insult to our German friends and prospective hosts, as well as the other nations engaged, which would be far more harmful than the possibility of international complications which the games sometimes threatened to produce in the past. The country is committed to the contest."

GOLFERS QUALIFY
WITH GOOD SCORES
IN VAN CORTLANDT MEET

Big Field Starts Out in Pook
Weather for Newspaper
Club Cup.

(Special to The Evening World.)

VAN CORTLANDT PARK GOLF LINKS, N. Y., Aug. 27.—The annual tournament for the Newspaper Club Cup began to-day over the Van Cortlandt Park links. The weather only was threatening, and just as the last of the contestants had left the first tee a heavy shower of rain fell and drenched all to the skin. The gallery, which was a good-sized one, including many of the fair sex, scurried to cover.

Many outside clubs were represented. Among the most prominent were the Scottish-American Golf Club, represented by C. H. Smith, who came from Chicago to compete. The Falmouth Golf Club of England, represented by W. H. Dawes, and the San Francisco Country Club, represented by Col. T. W. Draper.

Walter Purcell of the Scottish-American Club, a finalist of last year, went around in 77 despite the weather. Frank M. Gould of the New York Golf Club, with a 75-37 out and 3 in, looked like the medalist.

Gardner W. White of Oakland entered, but was unable to start, pressing business holding him in town. The Princeton athletic, John Bredemus, last year's national all-around champion, used a putter in place of a driver and went around in 78.

Two extremes were originally scheduled, but a third was suggested and provided for later.
